

Dear Precious Friend,

February, 2014

WE KICKED GOD OUT

For years we have heard the expression: We've taken God out of our schools. This is unfortunately very true and we have received the dire consequences of that error. Rebellion, violence, murder, sexual impropriety, chaos and only God knows what else awaits us as He peers longingly into the lives of the children we have withheld from Him. But there is a far more serious error that we committed long before we booted the King of Kings out of our schools and out of the public sector of our society. We kicked God out of the BEDROOM and out of the private chamber of our marriages and lives.

We have called it a sexual revolution, but in reality it was a revolt against God. We had the audacity to throw God out of the nuptial bed and out of the very union which He and He alone instituted for His glory.

"For you are bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's." (I Cor 6:20)

The consequences of our rebellion? The awe and mystery of God's presence in the marriage union is long gone and all sorts of perversion have usurped its place.

"For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. THIS IS A GREAT MYSTERY: but I speak concerning Christ and the church". (Eph 5:31-32)

When we kicked God out of the marriage bed, sex like a ravenous insatiable beast usurped His place. "Diversity" and perversity upon perversity have become the norm and yet we are still unsatisfied. God is no longer in the bedrooms of our homes and Satan the perverted prince of the power of the air is prancing around our godless bedrooms rejoicing over every minute of our lasciviousness.

Dear Friend, when God left the bedroom, truly all hell broke loose. The enemy took over the most private and holy sector of our lives.

From the beginning, it was not so (Gk- it has not been so). (Matt 19:8)

These are the words of Jesus Himself when the religious authorities questioned Him about divorce rights and the law. What did the Son of God mean by this statement?

Jesus forever remembers creation, for all things were made by Him, for Him and through Him. He remembers His original design. He remembers when He created the male and female together in one physical body, not two. He remembers that she was man's only perfect counterpart, bone of his bone and flesh of his flesh. In the beginning, the female was hidden within Adam in inseparable union, much like the Godhead in whose image we are made. It took a miraculous and holy intervention of God to remove Adam's rib and to form the female to become the glory of the man. For this cause, man will leave his mother and father and cleave (Gk-be glued) to his wife and the two shall become one flesh (again). This truly is a great mystery.

If Jesus is declaring that divorce between a male and female in marriage has not been so from the beginning because they were eternally one in God's sight and not to be severed, how would He answer those today who would inquire about their personal rights to commit all types of perversion in the marriage bed that He made for His glory? What God has joined together (in the way that He has joined it) let no man separate. In spite of this eternal command, man has pulled apart the oneness of holy matrimony as God designed it and put it together in all sorts of perverted ways without the approval or authority of the Holy Spirit.

The first couple were naked and yet they were not ashamed. They were unashamed because they were one, "clothed" in the Holy Spirit, who maintained the mystery of their God-created oneness. God who is Spirit was present in every aspect of their formation and He was present when Adam KNEW Eve!

And Adam knew Eve his wife; (Gen 4:1)

For even Eve exclaimed, "I have gotten a man with the help of God." She acknowledged that God was intimately involved in the whole process of their knowing one another including a miraculous conception and delivery.

Knowing was the original term for intimacy (sexual) between a man and a woman. It meant that a man became one with his wife both physically and mystically. This knowing was initiated and enabled by the Spirit who is the Revealer of all that is concealed from our naked eye. We know one another after the Spirit.

For who among men knows the things of a man (generic term) except the spirit of man within him? So also no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God. (I Cor.2:11)

When we took God out of the "privacy" of our bedroom and our marriage beds, we removed the spiritual dimension which brings about true experiential knowledge of one another flowing out of pure unadulterated divine love.

Man, woman and God the Spirit make a perfect unity. Without God, we cannot truly be one. His Spirit must be present to "glue" us together in body, soul and spirit. When God is not present, the true fullness and revelation of the marriage union cannot take place. Knowing one another becomes degraded into a mere mechanical act we call, sex.

When my friend, "I" who was a virgin on her wedding night, was united for the first time with her husband "V," she told me that the presence of God suddenly manifested in their room and in their union. The Lord immediately brought to my remembrance the mystery of Eph 5:31-33 and I knew at once that my dear friends had experienced the true revelation of the marriage bed of God.

Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge. (Heb 13:4)

God wants to clean up the marriage bed. He wants to restore the standard and quality of the nuptial union between male and female once again to become what it was intended to be: an honorable and undefiled act of pure divine love inspired by God that is without shame and which reveals the mystery of His love for His body, the church.

This cleansing and restoration has authentic power to reform our society and to thwart whoremongers, adulterers and all those who are defiling the marriage bed and dishonoring the holy union between a man and a woman.

You are a great blessing to me. May the Lord reward you on that day for your powerful prayers and support. To Him be honor and glory forever!

For His Glory,

Greta
